

JACKSON PREMIERE

DEER 139

Sept 29 2019 | 6 PM (Doors open at 5:30)
National Museum of Wildlife Art
Free Public Screening
Light Reception Following

THREE BOLD WOMEN TEST
THEIR ENDURANCE AND WITS
AS THEY BRAVE THE FORMIDABLE, MIGRATORY
JOURNEY OF A PREGNANT, SCRAWNY DOE.

The Jackson Hole Wildlife Foundation proudly co-hosts this screening with the George B. Storer Foundation and Knobloch Family Foundation.

The film is a product of the Monteith Shop and the Haub School of Environment and Natural Resources of the University of Wyoming in partnership with Wyoming Public Media.

Other major film supporters include: National Geographic, Ralph and Louise Haberland, Wyoming Wildlife Foundation, Wyoming Humanities, Muley Fanatic Foundation, and No Man's Land Film Festival.